ה'תשנ"א

On 11/11/68, the FBI received a letter from the American Friends Service Committee (AFSC) regarding the activities of the AFSC in the United States. The letter stated that the AFSC was a non-profit organization that was dedicated to the promotion of peace and social justice. The AFSC was also involved in the civil rights movement and was active in the anti-war movement. The letter requested that the FBI investigate the activities of the AFSC and report the results of the investigation to the FBI. The FBI responded to the letter on 11/15/68, stating that it was aware of the AFSC and its activities. The FBI also stated that it was conducting an investigation of the AFSC and would report the results of the investigation to the FBI.

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it contains a valid OMB control number.
